

I am concerned about changes that will allow further consolidation of media markets and loss of diversity in communications for the public. Our society is already seeing the effects of losses in numbers of small, independent stations and the resultant homogenization of broadcasting and lost of local coverage. Please don't allow the quality of broadcasting to deteriorate further.